v.

Johnson, et al.

Civil Action # 00-2156

Magistrate A. R. Hay.

Declaration In Support of Plaintiff's Motion
For A Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction:

Shawn C. Sharp, hereby declares under the penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct, based upon my personal knowledge:

1.) Since arriving in the Custody of SCI Green pursuant to the order of Magistrate Judge Amy Reynolds Hay, I have been repeatedly denied medical treatment as a form of harrassment and retaliation by the defendants, their, agents, and successors, for pursuing the above cited civil action.

2.) This behavior was reported to the court and on one occassion, trial had to be stopped/postponed until the plaintiff could be given medication he had been denied since being in the custody of defendants for trial.

3.) Upon completion of trial, plaintiff is again being denied any medical treatment even though he has repeatedly requested treatment in accordance with the policies and procedures of the Dept. of Corrections.

4.) Plaintiff requested of Court that he be expedited out of the custody of Def. at SCI Green and Attorney General also requested this, but the Defendants have delayed intentionally in returning him to his assigned institution so that he can be left confined in the RHU (Restrictive Housing Unit) on Administrative Custody as a means of punishment.

5.) Agents & Coworkers of the Defendants have repeatedly threatened plaintiff for his legal pursuits while in the R.H.U.

6.) Plaintiff has been denied any privileges to purchase basic hygiene items, or be issued any free of charge since he is not indigent.

7.) Plaintiff is being treated as a Disciplinary Status inmate solely for his legal pursuits.

8.) Plaintiff is harrassed daily by R.H.U. officers Gasco, Basinger, Anderson, Gagnon, Flemming, Remner, and other 2-10 shift staff on H-Pod of the R.H.U.

9.) Plaintiff has written to the Superintendant, Deputy Super.,

R.H.U. Captains, etc. informing them of this with the situation only worsening.

- 10) Plaintiff wrote the Presiding Judge A.R. Hay and the Attorney General with no action being taken to protect the plaintiff from such abuse.
- 11) Plaintiff has also suffered financial losses from continued confinement in the R.H.U. in over a months pay which for a prisoner with a set income who is dependent on that pay for daily needs, is dramatic and will only worsen as plaintiff is confined for a longer period.
- 12) For the reasons set forth above, plaintiff is entitled to protection by the court in the form of the requested relief:
Temporary Restraining Order / Injunction Ordering an Immediate Transfer Back To SCI Dallas

Respectfully Submitted;

Shawn Sharp
